

A SAT+CAS Method

for Enumerating Williamson Matrices of Even Order

Curtis Bright

Ilias Kotsireas

Vijay Ganesh

Many conjectures in combinatorics concern the existence or nonexistence of combinatorial objects that are only feasibly constructed through a search.

Typically a lot of domain-specific knowledge is known about such objects, but it is necessary to use a computer with a clever search procedure to find large instances of these objects.

A SAT+CAS Method

